

HERALD CONTEST WORKERS ARE UP AND DOING

Vote-Getting Gains in Activity
As End of Contest Approaches.

Hundreds of contestants are viewing the valuable awards to be distributed to winners, and are stimulated to fresh endeavors by so doing. The $5,000 house award has delighted all who have seen it. The four completely equipped automobiles on display at the establishments from which they were purchased, each one valued at $2,500, including extra equipment are receiving universal praise.

The phones and majority of other awards shown at Contest Headquarters, 334 Thirteenth Street Northwest, are viewed by hundreds daily. The fact that every contestant will receive an award has been hailed with enthusiasm.

It has given a new stimulus to the contest, and proves in an emphatic manner the liberality of the Advocate.

Votes, votes—there is an avalanche of votes every day to be counted by the Advocate and his staff. As the days wear on contestants increase in numbers, and the volume of votes turned in increases in proportion.

The $5,000 house and lot, purchased from H. E. Howesberry Company, 334 F Street Northwest, is located on the southeast corner of Tenth and D Streets Northeast. It is in the midst of a prosperous, growing, and refined neighborhood, and adjacent to a thorough car line. It is the one that the owners take pride in, as it is home in every sense of the word.

Six commodious rooms and bath insure plenty of space. It has hardwood finish throughout and polished floors. The front is of pressed brick and the porch is in colonial design, overlooking an attractive terraced parking.

Large closets, oak mantels, polished floors, combination electric and gas lights, hot-water and cold-water tanks and servants' insets combine to make this one—the best equipped home it is possible to build and to sell for $5,000.

The four $1,500 automobiles to be given as first awards to Herald contestants ranking next to the grand award in value may be seen at the establishments from which they were purchased. Here is the list:

POWER OF THE UNSEEN IS SUBJECT OF SERMON

Rev. Dr. James Shera Montgomery
Says Externals Are Not Only
Things that Count.

Rev. Dr. James Shera Montgomery, of the First Methodist Church, delivered an interesting sermon on the inspiration and power of the unseen. Dr. Montgomery declared that because of the superficiality of the average man he could see only the concrete things of life, and for that reason the true meaning of Jesus' saying that the "Kingdom of God is within you" was lost to them. He expressed the attitude of the average man regarding this in the popular phrase "Show me."

He spoke, in part, as follows:

"When Jesus said 'the Kingdom of God is within you,' upturned faces looked strangely pale, because the declaration was so revolutionary. Their motto was the 'Kingdom of God is without you.' They were the only sources of power and progress. Helmets, swords, and spears were the insignia of the everlasting kingdom. These were the shining realities of kingship. So the Word of Jesus was muttering regarding this in the popular phrase "Show me."
